SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President, you have all been great sports so I ask you to be great sports once more. Oh, do you want to read something in? Oh, the A bill? Okay, run it.

PRESIDENT: The A bill, I guess, 1125A.

CLERK: Mr. President, before, Senator Landis would move to amend the A bill.

SENATOR LANDIS: Mr. Speaker, I would move to reduce the A bill from $470,000 to $250,000.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to...Senator Landis moves to amend the bill. Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. President, is this debatable?

PRESIDENT: Yes, it is.

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Landis, why are you amending the A bill down to a quarter of a million dollars? Why don't we go with a hundred thousand?

SENATOR LANDIS: I checked with the future managers of this program. I said I thought the A bill was high. I said, give me a livable figure and I said my suggestion is a quarter of a million dollars and they said that we could start the first year's program with that.

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Landis, I still feel it is high. Would you support an amendment if I amend it down to $25,000?
